WE believe that the people of Virginia have a right to be displeased with the action of the State Convention. A majority of the rank and file of Democratic Party of this state desire that Woodrow Wilson be their nominee for President and the delegates to the Baltimore Convention should have been so instructed. Even a preferential resolution would have been better than no expression and we believe such a resolution would have passed the Norfolk Convention. The Wilson leaders made a great mistake in accepting a one-sided compromise rather than making a fight. We agree with Speaker Byrd that it is beyond understanding that Virginia should refuse to honor her own son when other states have and are daily endorsing him.

As some political writer has pertinently said, "with the nomination of Roosevelt by the Republicans practically assured, the Democrats need to bring out the best horse in their political stable." With the possible exception of Mr. Bryan, Wilson is the one man who can successfully oppose Roosevelt.

A TRIP TO THE CONVENTION.

Through the courtesy of the Commissioner of Fisheries the Mathews Delegation to the State Convention traveled comfortably to Norfolk Wednesday on the "Targier," one of the oyster navy fleet. Several gentlemen who were attending court took advantage of this quick trip. All of the delegates showed up except Hons. G. E. T. Lane and J. Boyd Sears, the latter being represented by his alternate, W. M. Minter.

Upon arrival in Norfolk it became evident that an immense crowd had assembled to the Convention and everybody was kept busy shaking hands with friends from other sections during the evening.

On Thursday morning the business of the Convention began in earnest. The Mathews Delegation attended the convention of First District Delegates which met in the Corporation Court room at 10 a. m. Hon. T. J. Downing presided and W. H. Ryland was elected secretary. The convention proceeded to elect its quota of the members of the different committees. Mr. L. C. Garrett of Mathews, being selected as a member of the Committee on Permanent Organization. Two delegates with half a vote each were elected to the National Convention, Dr. Bowdoin of Accomac and Allen Jones of Northern Neck Alternates Hon. W. D. Evans and M. B. Rowe. The present District Committee, T. J. Downing, J. B. Sears, R. L. Ailsworth, J. M. Curtis and E. D. Cole were reelected. After a considerable scrap a resolution was passed instructing the delegates from this district to vote for Woodrow Wilson in the National Convention.

The State Convention met in the Grand Theatre at noon. After a temporary organization had been effected the body adjourned pending a report from the various committees. It reassembled at four o'clock and a certain space was allowed for speeches in behalf of the Presidential candidates. Hon. LaFayette of Col. spoke in behalf of Mr. Clark, Messrs. McAdoo, Byrd, Tucker and Glass in behalf of Wilson and Senator Swanson and Mr. Flood against instructions for any candidate refusing to say who they favored.

It is believed that a majority of the delegates favored Mr. Wilson but as Mr. McAdoo of New York his personal representative, and Speaker Byrd, who is managing the Wilson Campaign in Virginia opposed a fight, none was made though many of his friends desired to do so. Instead by a compromise with the organization, eight delegates at large were selected with half a vote each, four being Wilson and four anti-Wilson men. They were Governor Mann, Senators Martin and Swanson, Congressman Flood, Speaker Byrd, Hons. Hon. St. George Tucker, Carter Glass and R. Tate Irvine.

Congressman Flood was made permanent chairman.

The resolutions offered at the 8 o'clock session by the committee etc., were adopted. They commended Governor Mann's administration, the record of the Democrats in Congress and Senators from Virginia, declared the sympathy of the Convention to be with the Senior Senator in the illness of his wife and expressed sorrow of Virginia Democrats over the death of Senator Daniel.

The only open fight of the convention was caused by a resolution offered by Mr. Strode of Amherst, endorsing presidential primaries. It was defeated by a vote of 211 1/2 to 58 1/4. The convention adjourned at 10 p. m.

MOBJACK 12-GLEBE 7.

A stop at Mathews—a drink of Coca Cola and (maybe so) a lemon soda—'twas 'nt long!

Laughing May was simply charming, beaming upon the diamonds and the throng.

The girls about in clusters—bright as 'twas roses flung at random on the green.

Chattering, chirping, primping for the "Ball"—flirting too, I ween.

Inning four! Mobjack smashed the sphere for five; not a Gleebe yet across the plate.

All over but the shouting? No, Gleebe, "chesty," even though a trifle late, Landed on our pitcher fiercely—smote the horse-hide good and fair.

Everybody got a tip-toe the field a-buzzing, swarming like a hive.

Ah! Mobjack's chance—her fifth—at bat. Alas! one, two, three—side out. Still, our boys, heedless of the hisses, or accepting them for kisses—wouldn't fust.

Right here hats off to Pitcher Treacle, though he went down later in the crush.

Mobjack's stunts at swallowing "flies" would make an alligator blush.

Smiling Jerry Hopkins steadied "him" upon the Gleebe's—a lion from his lair.

Batsman after batsman, they came punching, punching air.

Inning eight tossed four to Mobjack, Gleebe drew three goose eggs in a string.

Our girls—de-lighted broke shrilly into chorus—made the Welkin ring!

Society For The Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

On May 15th a meeting for the purpose of organizing a Society for the prevention of Cruelty to Animals was held at Elmington, on North River, a large and representative company assembling from both Mathews and Gloucester Counties.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. W. D. W. Dimock, upon motion of Mr. Percival Hicks, was elected chairman and R. L. McGuire secretary. Mr. Dimock stated the object of the meeting and called upon Mr. Hicks to explain the possibilities and benefits of such an organization. Mr. Hicks closed his remarks by recommending that committees be appointed to draft by-laws, select officers and prepare a charter. The meeting was then addressed by Mr. J. W. Down who discussed the deplorable condition of the horses passing his door on court days. At the close of Mr. Down's address, Mr. Hicks moved the appointment of committees and the following were chosen:

Committee on officers; Messrs. J. W. Down, A. J. Billups and Mrs. Richard Taliaferro.

Committee on by-laws; Messrs. W. D. W. Dimock, F. P. Dabney and L. C. Catlett.

Committee on charter; John N. Tabb Jr., R. T. McGuire Esq., and S. B. Taliaferro Esq.

The committees retired to three separate rooms which were assigned to their use and after some delay reported a charter which was adopted, a set of by-laws after some discussion and amendments and officers for the ensuing year as follows; President, Hon. J. N. Tabb, vice president, W. D. W. Dimock, second vice president, L. C. Catlett, secretary, Percival Hicks, treasurer, Marshall Lewis, ex. com. Messrs. Tabb, Dimock, Lewis, Catlett, and Hicks; Mesdames Dimock and Brace. General agent to take charge of police work—Percival Hicks.

At the conclusion of the meeting a luncheon was served, after which the meeting adjourned.
